

TRI-SECTOR LDR PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Leadership Development Roundtable (LDR) is the signature program of Five Frogs, Inc., a nonprofit whose mission is to build a powerful movement of diverse leaders with the competencies, mindset, drive and relationships necessary to create lasting, positive change for an equitable Connecticut.

LDR is a strengths-based, action-oriented experience designed for brave, bold leaders working for racial equity and justice. Building on 13 years of our LDR nonprofit program, we will launch the first Tri-sector LDR cohort in 2022 for fifteen leaders from the public, private, and nonprofit sectors. Based on our existing LDR program, this new experience aims to increase connections, collaboration and collective problem-solving among tri-sector leaders working to advance equity in Connecticut. While new for us, the tri-sector approach is not new. Leaders from Michael Bloomberg to Dr. Condoleezza Rice have championed the value of cross-sector collaboration and leaders who can seamlessly navigate between sectors.

Delivered over nine months, the Tri-sector cohort will primarily meet virtually and, on three occasions, in-person for full day sessions.

Learning and Networking Goals

Over the course of the program, you will:

- acquire the mindset, knowledge, and vision to lead more effectively across sectors;
- apply your learning in real-time to grow your leadership practice;
- learn from and with a diverse peer cohort representing public, private, and nonprofit sectors;
- clarify your strengths, work one-on-one with a leadership coach, and implement a personalized development plan to ensure continuous improvement;
- learn about leading for racial equity and dismantling systemic inequities, including building and engaging more diverse talent pipelines;
- connect with the Five Frogs community to expand your professional network; and
- establish relationships that will last a lifetime.

Program Details

Tri-sector LDR helps you strengthen your leadership through practice. The program has a “bias for action.” LDR is not a class, it is an experience. As a result, you will be encouraged to try out new ways of thinking and doing to learn and build new skills. Three primary components of the program are:

- Focus on the individual: LDR believes leaders are made, not born. Everyone can be a more effective leader with practice. Thus, you will create an actionable leadership development plan and use eight one-on-one sessions with a leadership

“As a leader of color, I want to see leaders in Connecticut that look like me and are reflective of the diverse society in which we live. As an alumnus of LDR, I know Five Frogs is working tirelessly to equip leaders with the tools to make that a reality. It is also vital that the next generation of leaders believe their voice matters and that they have an equal stake in impacting the future of Connecticut.” – LDR Leader

“This is an opportunity to become more connected with peers in Connecticut, to share what’s working well both as an individual and at specific organizations. It’s a rare opportunity to have structured time to be in a learning community with minimal interference from workplace politics, where you can problem solve together.” –LDR Leader coach for support in achieving your goals. You will also benefit from your Changemaker Group, a small tri-sector peer group that meets regularly to support each other.

- Focus on relationships: Change happens in relationships. Big, bold change requires that leaders have access to and nurture diverse networks and trusting relationships. You will join a cohort of 15 leaders from private, public, and nonprofit sectors and gather for virtual and in-person Roundtable Sessions to learn and work together. The sessions are professionally facilitated and include discussion, practice and reflection. Leaders will meet members of the Five Frogs network (750+ members) who join as special guests to share personal leadership insights and challenges.
- Focus on leading for system change: What has worked in the past will not work in the future. We need more diverse, representative leaders working collectively across sectors to dismantle oppressive, racist systems and build a new future for all. Connecticut’s private, nonprofit, and government leaders must innovate, experiment together, and discover new paths forward. LDR is an opportunity to participate in a profoundly transformational experience centered on advancing leadership for systems change.

“Whether we are talking about homelessness, rising educational costs, food insecurity, the school-to-prison pipeline, immigration concerns, LGBTQ rights, or any other cause that someone cares about, none of these issues will be solved by one person, by one group, or by one community. We need to build up each other and ensure that all voices are heard, supported, and part of the solution.” – LDR Leader

Tri-sector LDR is led by a diverse team of facilitators, leadership coaches and staff.

Schedule: Please review the 2022 schedule. You are expected to participate in all of the sessions.

Fee:

Program fees are tiered according to organizational budget:

Budget Size	Fee
< 1 million	$2,000
1-20 million	$2,500
> 20 million	$3,000

“While every organization tackles its own obstacles on the path to executing its vision, there is an existing wealth of experience among leaders in Connecticut. LDR works to connect those leaders, who share their experience and insights, in a program that fosters development of strengths that each leader brings to the table.” – LDR Leader

A limited number of scholarships may be available.

Who should apply?

Tri-sector LDR is open to all leaders currently employed by a nonprofit, private company, or public employer in Connecticut. Successful applicants will demonstrate an eagerness to learn and practice cross-sector leadership, as well as a commitment to the mission of Five Frogs. The strongest cohorts reflect diversity in race, socioeconomic status, gender, geography, age, and experience.

Applications are due Monday, December 13 by 5pm. You will receive an email regarding the outcome of your application by January 5, 2022. Please see our application instructions to learn how to apply and visit our website for more information. Thank you for your interest!
